Dear Friend,

I have just received a letter from Vic Harris where he writes that the European Kendo Championships are to be held in France. The situation now is a bit confusing as I have received an invitation from Italy but no invitation from France. I therefore hope that you can clarify the situation and if the championships are going to be held in France send me an official invitation. The matter is most urgent as people here in Sweden are arranging for a trip to Italy!

Yours Sincerely,

Hans Lundberg
