Zaandam, May 14th, 1985

Dear friends,

They very simple bed in Holland seems to be a big mystery for some of you.

That is why I am giving you some more information about it now. In the place where we will have our meals, there are two rooms where we can put some mattresses on the floor. It will sleep quite comfortable, but you need your own sleepingbag and all men will sleep together in a room and all women will sleep in another room.

In this building there are no bathrooms so you will have to take your bath in the sportinghall.

So this is the very simple bed, which is included in the price of the trainingcourse.

We do hope that you will give this information to all the members of your federation.

Sincerely yours,

NEDERLANDSE ZEN KYUDO RENMEI
