Dear Mr. Söderström :

Re : Z.N.K.R. Dan Examination / OSLO, 1986

This is a follow-up letter on the advice that Mr. J. Morita, Assistant Secretary, Zen Nippon Kendo Renmei (Z.N.K.R.) made to your Mr. Komaki during the latter's visit with the former a short while ago.

We understand, to our great regret, that the application documents for Dan Certificate issuance had been misplaced in the office of Z.N.K.R. and that the information could not be recovered despite a time-consuming and thorough search conducted ever since.

They asked Mr. Komaki to convey their apologies to all the people concerned for this grave incident, and at the same time to send the duplicate data (the names of successful applicants, Dan, pertinent information on the last Dan for verification, birth dates, addresses, occupation, etc.) to us by mail.

Z.N.K.R. office will see to it that their certificates will be promptly issued upon receipt of the information.

Very truly yours,

I. Sato

Acting Secretary General
