Dear Mr. Ducarme:

Re: Kendo Delegation for 14th EKC

We are very pleased to have received your letter of Feb. 17, '96 wherein you requested us for ZNKR delegation to assist at the upcoming 14th European Championships to be held in Miskolc, Hungary from April 15 until 21, 1996.

Upon your request, we are now ready to send ZNKR delegation composed of three instructors as described below. Assuming that the seminar is supposed to be carried out according to a new regulation of matches and its refereeing, we have selected such suitable sensei eligible in line with the above-stated purport. Accordingly, we would like you to understand that sensei of Iaido are excluded this time.

As for 14th EKC, we feel it appropriate that three instructors should take the tasks not only as Shimpancho and Shimpan-shuin, but also as judges in semi-final matches and a final match, which will be very good for judges from EKF hereafter.

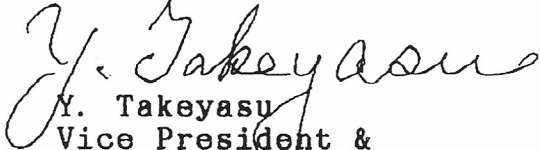

And then, your reply on a precise event schedule including what day and what time EKF Board Meeting & GA will be held, would be much appreciated at your earliest convenience. Their tentative schedule is as shown below, although we are advising you of a firmed-up one in due course upon your reply:

April 13 (Sat) Departure from Narita
Arrival in Wien
14 (Sun) Departure from Wien
Arrival in Budapest

15 (Mon) } Seminar
18 (Thu)
19 (Fri) 14th EKC (Individual)
20 (Sat) 14th EKC (Team)
21 (Sun) Dan Examination
22 (Mon) Departure from Budapest
Arrival in Wien
23 (Tue) Departure from Wien
24 (Wed) Arrival at Narita

Thanking you for your good attention to it and awaiting your early reply.

Very truly yours,

Y. Takeyasu
Vice President &
Executive Managing Director
