Dear Robert von Sandor

Both my wife and I arrived safely in Japan on October 28, and we are very grateful to have had even a brief interview with you and to have had the advantage of your kind advice on publications activities. In keeping with your suggestion, we have begun planning and working on a kendo book; when the English-language edition is complete, we shall send you a copy.

In addition, we are in hopes that you will issue Swedish editions of some of our judo or other martial-arts titles.

Although our visit was very sudden and unexpected, you and your wife and son were extremely kind to us, and we are grateful.

I consider it my good fortune to have been able to meet you through your young boy. We shall, of course, be happy to return your hospitality should you ever visit Japan.

Sincerely yours,
