This year we are planning to hold a joint BKA grading to 5th DAN with the Muso Shinden Ryu group. This group is unable at present to confirm the exact date of the grading. It will be either on FRIDAY 17th AUGUST or SATURDAY 18th AUGUST and will most likely be in central London. We will let you know as soon as the final date is confirmed to us. We remind you that applications for grading need to be made ONE MONTH before the grading date and the appropriate fees paid, you should receive an application form from the BKA well in advance. If you have not had an application by the beginning of July we suggest you chase the BKA for one. If you experience any problems please contact either Trevor Jones (South & West) or Don Harvey (North & Midlands).

Because we cannot confirm the date of the grading our seminar will run from Monday to Thursday, special evening sessions will be arranged. It is hoped that refreshments at lunch time will be available for purchase at the Dojo so that those that wish to can have an opportunity to talk with the sensei or continue training without having to leave the premises to find food. As more details are confirmed they will be circulated to you.

As for the Friday and Saturday, whichever is the free day, it is planned to take the sensei into central London for some R & R and anyone wishing to come along will be welcome. If Friday is the free day, some people, particularly those taking a grading may wish to continue training. If this is the case you MUST let us know in advance so that we can try and book the hall for an additional day. (There may be a small extra charge for this). Obviously if Saturday is the free day this training possibility will not apply.
