subject Dissident Activities.

Dear Friends,

Recently we have been informed that dissident organisation(s) have been inviting some of the duly affiliated EKF-Members to international manifestations.

As especially our new members don't know yet how hard we try to remain one of the rare sport federations that is not only represented all over Europe, but uniting all practicans in a friendly spirit, we thought it necessary to issue a warning.

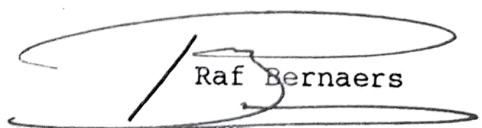

We suppose that the rules mentioned in the Statutes of the EKF are more than clear enough:

- only one organisation per country shall be recognised: if you have doubts, consult the address list in the yearly newsletter;
- the proper kendo spirit is to be preserved.

Anyway, there is still the moral engagement that a member should not contribute in any way to separatist activities in another country. If you're not sure about the intention of certain organisations, stick to the EKF Calendar, of which the most recent version is joined, or ask for more information to the EKF Technical Director.

May I remind you by the way that the 1990 edition of the European Newsletter is about to be published. If you have any information for the grading register, please send it as quickly as possible.

Sincerely Yours,

 Raf Bernaers
 EKF Secretary-General
