VENUE

The 1991 summer seminar will be held at the Middleton Civic Centre in Middleton (near Rochdale), Lancashire.

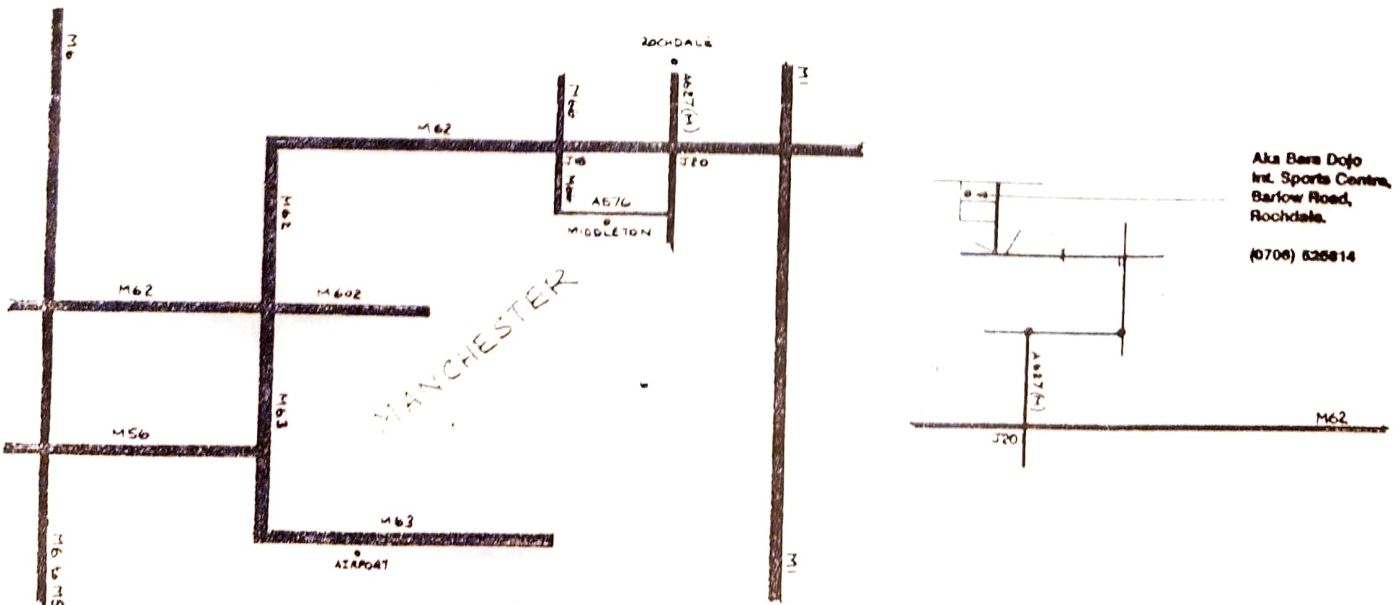

It is a modern building with an excellent wooden floor in the split level air conditioned 'Dojo' area. The training area can accommodate around 50 people. The complex also has a lounge area with bar, a restaurant and ample well equipped changing rooms with showers. There is a car park adjacent to the building. The town centre shopping area is a 2minute walk away. The centre will be booked solely for our use so privacy and security are assured.

The area has plenty of accomodation starting at around £12 or so for Bed and Breakfast. If you have indicated this as a requirement, addresses will be sent to you but the booking will be your responsibility.

For those who want sleeping bag accommodation there is plenty of room at the Aka Bara Dojo only 2 miles from the seminar dojo. The Sensei will be staying at the Aka Bara Dojo in specially provided bedrooms. Others wishing to stay there will have floor space on sponge 'tatami' matting. The dojo is private with its own showers and toilets and coffee making facilities. There is a private 'lock up' car park available. In addition there are several TV's and Videos for amusment and relaxation, there will be avery small charge for the use of the facilities. There is a cafe doing full breakfasts at very reasonable prices only 100yds from the dojo. A farewell Disco and Buffet will be held at the dojo, there will be a nominal charge for this collected during the seminar and everyone will be expected to provide their own liquid refreshments.

All locations are very easy to get to. The Middleton complex is 1 mile from Exit 18 of the M62 if travelling by car. The Aka Bara Dojo in Rochdale is 2 miles from Exit 20 of the M62 and is half a mile from Rochdale Railway station, which has connections to Manchester and the rest of the country.
